

NALMS Update

Philip Forsberg

Thank you, CLRMA!

Thank you for ...

- ▶ Your generous donation to NALMS earlier this year.
- ▶ Your hard work on the 2017 NALMS Symposium.
 - ▶ The CLRMA host committee is now held up as the model of how a NALMS host committee should be organized and for your follow-through.

NALMS Year in Review

- ▶ LakeLine Magazine moving to electronic only starting with Spring 2019 issue
- ▶ Created Ethics Committee
- ▶ Initiated a successful membership drive
- ▶ Developed a list of subject matter experts and published list on NALMS website by NALMS region
- ▶ Created an early career membership option
- ▶ Worked with Oklahoma Water Resources Board on Exchange Network Grant that will allow NALMS to create a new modern database for the Secchi Dip-In.

NALMS Membership

- ▶ NALMS memberships are now on a calendar cycle with all memberships renewing January 1.
- ▶ CLRMA-NALMS Joint Membership
 - ▶ For only $75, get a one-year CLRMA membership and a NALMS Lake Leader membership.

11th NATIONAL MONITORING CONFERENCE

Working Together for Clean Water

March 25-29, 2019

Denver, Colorado

March 25-29, 2019

- Organized by the National Water Quality Monitoring Council and facilitated by NALMS
- All water stakeholders—including federal, state, tribal and local water professionals, nonprofits, academia, and volunteer citizen scientists—are welcome.
- All water resources, including lakes and wetlands, rivers and streams, coastal waters and estuaries, groundwater, and processed water, will be represented.
- Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel. Same hotel as 2010 conference.
- Registration opening soon
- More information available on the NALMS website

NALMS 2019: Burlington, Vermont

- ▶ Watershed Moments:
Harnessing Data, Science,
and Local Knowledge to Protect Lakes
- ▶ November 11–15, 2019
- ▶ Call for Abstracts in January
- ▶ nalms.org/nalms2019

Congratulations, Jillian Taylor!

Winner of the People's Choice Award in the 2018 NALMS Photo Contest